COMPLAINT

1. This civil rights action seeks compensatory and punitive relief for damages arising from the violation of civil rights, the wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution and assault and battery of the plaintiff. The defendants demonstrated official policies, patterns, practices, and customs that manifested not only because of intentional discrimination, but also because of systemic failure to recognize or even care about basic principles of due process, and reckless disregard for human life and liberty.

JURISDICTION

2. Jurisdiction is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and 28 U.S.C. 1343 (Civil Rights and Elective Franchise) because Plaintiffs claims arise pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, et seq. (conspiracy for deprivation of constitutional civil rights).
3. Plaintiff provided sufficient ante litem notice pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 36-11-1, O.C.G.A. 36-33-5 et seq.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367, this court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims arising under state law because the claims are so related to claims in this action within the Court's original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case and controversy.
5. Defendants reside within the Northern District of Georgia. All actions alleged herein occurred within the Northern District of Georgia. Venue in this district is proper for Defendants under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) & (c).

ALLEGATIONS

6. I spent a total of ten months in Cobb jail. After my arrest in Smyrna I spent nine continuous months in jail housed in a cell with approximately 40 other prisoners. There was a gang fight in another area so about 30 gang members were moved into my cell for a total of 70 inmates.
7. Most prisoners were black, about five were white but Hispanic prisoners were labeled white, according to the jail wrist bands they wore.

8. I had not been convicted of a crime, but I spent more time in jail than real criminals. And it was not just my time in jail but the cruelty I was subjected to by the guards, particularly Deputy Miller. My younger sister died 10 days before I was arrested, which added another burden.
9. I was sick when I was jailed and I got sicker. I had to pay for medical treatment, if it could be called that, I had to pay for OTC medication and I usually had to wait a month to be seen. I was charged $5 for each medical visit and the medications for a total of $20. I did not see a doctor.
10. The food was terrible. It was unhealthy, unappetizing and insufficient quantity. The food was so bad and the portions so tiny I lost weight while in jail, and I was not fat when I went in. Breakfast was usually a small bowl of expired cereal, sometimes the milk was bad, and a small packet of instant coffee and sugar. Lunch was bologna on 2 pieces of white bread with a small packet of tasteless oil. Supper was usually spaghetti that had no flavor. A small packet of Kool-Off, which may have been privately contracted with the sheriff, came with meals. Coffee, tea or other drinks had to be bought at the commissary. Water was from a fountain attached to a metal toilet.

Sunday we had pancakes (plastic cakes). Twice a week we had grits and powder eggs. A few times a month we were given some slices of fruit. I traded some of my food for the healthier option of fruit.

11. My father and brother-in-law gave me $60; which I had to stretch over the nine months, for the commissary after the Smyrna arrest. It was infuriating when guards took away food, pens, paper or other supplies I bought at the commissary with the little money I had.
12. The guards were too lazy and uncaring to distribute toilet tissue, soap, deodorant or toothpaste from the storeroom. Instead, we were expected to buy these items from the commissary. Dental floss was not allowed. I used threads from a towel for floss. If I had been discovered I would have been charged with criminal/malicious damage and forced to pay $35 for a towel, so I was discrete.
13. We were issued used prison clothes. This included used underwear and socks. We were issued one pair of used shower sandals for shoes which were terribly uncomfortable to wear on the concrete floors. I was in jail so long the shoes began to wear away, the guard would not give me a new pair instead they would always make excuses. It got to the point where I had to use the plastic bag our sack lunches came in to make a lace to tie the shower shoes together.

14. When I finally got the opportunity to get new sandals I thought the green color on them was paint. It turned out to be fungus or mold. After two weeks my feet became infected and I needed medical treatment.
15. It took another two weeks to get medical help. I wrote a humorous letter to get the nurse's attention. She brought medication with her; otherwise it would have taken another two weeks to see a doctor, if the nurse approved it.
16. The judge saw how we were dressed, including the shower sandals. No one cared.
17. We had to request haircuts, but nothing came of it, just like all my other requests. I've always kept my hair short, but after five months in jail my hair and beard had grown long.

18. We were supposed to get an hour a day outside in the yard for air and sunlight but we never got close to that.
19. Not getting fresh air or seeing daylight was bad enough, but something that may permanently affect my health was the three times a month radiation dose we received from the Rapiscan body scanners when we came back from waiting for court. The Forbes article "TSA Abandons Rapiscan's Nude Body Scanners" says that the Transportation Security Agency has stopped using these machines and each machine costs $180,000. The article says these machines are used in maximum-security prisons. I was in a county jail.
20. Shake downs by guards happened once or twice a week. In a shake down, 20 to 25 guards suddenly rushed into the cell screaming and yelling, often while we were asleep. We were body searched then herded into the recreation area. During those searches our sleeping mats, sheets, clothing and few personal items were gone through and thrown on the floor. Items guards claimed were contraband were seized, including items bought at the jail commissary. The guards tore up everything and left.

21. The "recreation area" where we were held during shake downs was like a concrete swimming pool with no water. From there we could see and hear the guards shouting as they tore up our stuff.

22. This was not for the safety of guards and prisoners but sheer harassment. I overheard one guard say, "We ought to go shake down O-POD. That'll really piss them off."

23. I filed grievances while I was in jail and kept a daily record. This infuriated some of the guards, especially Deputy Miller. He was the worst of the guards, he claimed that it was policy that "...nothing come back from detail".

24. I wanted to file a grievance against him but they would not give me the form. It got to where I was about to file a grievance about not being able to file a grievance.

25. Deputy Miller took my notes, pens, paper and food I bought at the commissary. He said he did not "recognize" any of the items as being from there.
26. I started carrying my notes so they would not be read and taken by the guards, but when Deputy Miller searched me and found my notes there was a problem. Deputy Miller was angry that I kept a journal. He told me I could not carry any items even though other inmates carried things.
27. Deputy Miller and Deputy Calfee-Vittetoe threw away my addresses and phone numbers so I did not have contact information. They threw away contact info for the investigating detective and my public defender, as well as my motions. I especially needed my pastor's address and phone number because he tried to help me. When he spoke with my public defender Hildebrand, H. said "...he will not plead guilty". My pastor told him that was because I was innocent. My pastor wanted me to mail him my charges, bonds, fines and other general info about my case.
28. I needed stamps and envelopes to maintain contact with the outside world. Because I could not afford to buy them at the commissary I asked my sister to send these items. When she did, the jail notified me these items were contraband and from then on blocked all my mail.

29. Sometime before Miller incident sergeant Simms came to the medical pod and watched me for 10 min.

30. The day before Miller claimed I assaulted him he came to the medical pod where I worked as a "feeder" for ill inmates and did other duties. He watched me for about 10 minutes. He was supposed to be supervising workers in the main housing. There was no reason for him to be in medical pod.

31. The next day after work detail Deputy Miller ordered me to put my hands on the wall while he searched me. He was ready to start something. Suddenly he said I "assaulted" him. He snickered. He handcuffed me and injured my hands with what felt like a piece of metal, all the time saying I was "weird" and needed "mental help".

32. He then forced me to sit on a bench, chained me to the bench where he slammed my right foot into the floor and cuffed my ankles as tightly as the cuffs would go leaving little circulation.

33. Deputy Calfee-Vittitoe claimed that "...when making little notes on sheets of paper it becomes trash".

34. They also diverted their attention to my bible and shook all the notes of the scriptures out.

35. We were in an area with security cameras but a video of the alleged assault was never produced.

36. Deputy Miller called Sergeant Sims and said one of their codes.

When the Sergeant arrived they went into an office and closed the door.

About ten minutes later they came out. I told the sergeant that Deputy Miller attacked me. She was not interested in my explanation, rather than hearing my side of the incident she was very combative as if I somehow deserved all of this over pens and paper. (Even though other inmates carried books, notes, and sometimes even a bible). I told them that when I got out I would file a real grievance.

37. I was taken to medical. Deputy Miller did not request or receive medical treatment for the alleged assault.

38. The week of September 11th 2015 I wrote the medical department requesting a doctor's report for the incident regarding Deputy Miller but got no answer.

39. I never went to court for this assault. It was handled in house. I was put in solitary confinement for fighting and resisting a jailer. Sergeant Sims had me sign a paper after my time in solitary.

40. I was told by a guard (I cannot remember his name he was the one who bragged about having all the guns and chains just before I went to solitary) that the usual time in solitary for assaulting a guard was 60 days but because I had been such a good prisoner I would get only 7 days.

- a. The penalty for assaulting a correctional officer is not up to 60 days of solitary confinement as determined by jail staff.

- b. Georgia Code 16-10-24 - Obstructing or hindering law enforcement officers: Whoever knowingly and willfully resists, obstructs, or opposes any law enforcement officer, prison guard, correctional officer, community supervision officer, county or Department of Juvenile Justice juvenile probation officer, probation officer serving pursuant to Article 6 of Chapter 8 of Title 42, or conservation ranger in the lawful discharge of his or her official duties by offering or doing violence to the person of such officer or legally authorized person is guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than five years.
41. I have a copy of the jail charges against me for “fighting and resisting staff” and “refusal to obey” and that the penalty for each is 30 days in solitary. I also kept copies of all the grievances I filed.
42. Three times a month we were taken to a holding cell for possible court hearings. I had not spoken with a public defender or had a bond reduction hearing. We were roused at 4:00 am and taken to a small holding cell in the jail where we sat until 7:00 am. For breakfast we got grits and powder eggs. This was the only time in jail we were given orange juice. We were then bused to court where we sat in a smaller cell than the one we just left. At 7:30 am we were given a sack lunch of bologna sandwiches. This was the only food we had all day. The only water we had to drink was from a fountain attached to the toilet. We usually sat in this cell until 5:00 pm. I went all those times for a court hearing that never happened.

43. I tried to get information from the court for filing lawsuits, grievances and requests but was told in a letter from court there was no information for that. I wanted to start my civil action since state court was not interested in justice or truth. (see exhibit 6 state inquiry )

44. Additionally, Because of Hildebrand's failure to provide competent counsel I attempted to move my case forward by filing motions. (see Cobb Police complaint)

45. The jail denied and limited resources because I was not a pro se inmate. (see exhibit 5 –grievance library)

46. No remedies for any of my grievances. Limits of Law Library, Antagonizing guard Deputy Miller, case not heard by veteran's

- c. Health hazards-Rapiscanner
- d. Lab for social experimentation through a controlled environment.
- e. Public safety undermined by the pursuit of convictions. One inmate bragged about the fact that he knew ICE would not pick him up.
- f. Attacked by Deputy Miller; ASSAULT AND BATTERY.
- g. Calfee-vittetoe negligence in aiding Miller by shaking notes out of bible to harass and intimidate instead of finding out what happened.
- h. S.Simms negligent by angrily scolding me for carrying pens not an inkling of concern as to what facts of the incident were.
- i. Deputy who interview plaintiff before going to solitary bragged about having all the guns and chains instead of facts of the incident.
- j. Ignored when requested a medical report of the incident.
- k. Attack occurred in sally port but no video was produced. Violation of the 8th Amendment cruel and unusual punishment and excessive force.
- l. Kangaroo hearing; predetermined guilt.
- m. 7 days in solitary confinement
- n. Mail keeps being returned.

- o. Because of Hildebrand's failure to provide competent counsel I attempted to move my case forward by filing motions. The jail denied and limited resources because I was not a pro se inmate.
- 50. Grievances all administratively exhausted and jail staff considered the matters 'closed'.
  - a. Law Library
  - b. Antagonizing guard
  - c. Case not heard by veterans accountability court
- 51. Not filing appeal after conviction
- 52. After acquittal/release I sat in jail for another 5 hours.
- 53. Ongoing damages – O.C.G.A. § 51-12-6???
- 54. § 1-12-5. Additional damages for aggravating circumstances
- 55. Wrongful Conviction
- 56. Justice system cannot be trusted
- 57. Stat led pursuit of convictions trivializes law and justice which can affect public safety.
- 58. Damage to reputation in community
- 59. Defamation; Neither police, public defenders nor prosecution were interested in facts.
- 60. Still struggling to find permanent employment.

61. Psychological trauma.
62. Severely lacking in technical prowess which causes the need for re-training leading to depression.

Response Inmate Jacobs I was in m-pnd on the date that this incident took place. I suggested to you to leave all your pens, paper and personal items that you were taking on detail in the dorm. The pens that Deputy Miller took from you had been altered and is considered contraband. You were handcuffed because you became combative with Deputy Miller when he started to find objects on you that you were not suppose to have.
